

Independence®

Alm21 n° EU 49458

End August – Early September

Fruit

Shell hardness: Soft

Double fruits: <5%

Breakage yield: Very high

Description of the kernel:

Attractive large kernel, uniform, elongated, veined, of light color, with fine tegument

Uses: All uses

Taste qualities: Sweet and flavoursome

Breeder: Zaiger's Genetics

Editor: International Plant Selection

Blooming

Period: Mid-season

Flowering intensity: Very high

Compatibility: Self-compatible

Tree

Tree habit: Semi-erect, compact

Vigor: Medium

Fruiting: All branches

Productivity: Very high in all region

Fruit set: Very fast

Alternate bearing: Low tendency

Tree management: Simple

Harvest: One single harvest

The information in this sheet is indicative and strongly depends on the stage of harvest and pedoclimatic conditions of the year.

The self-fertility, the taste quality and the high production level set Independence® to be the most planted variety in the USA. We advise to graft the variety on a vigorous rootstock.